

What is POSH?

POSH [Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace] is a compliance requirement for every organization enforced by The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013, commonly referred to as the 'POSH Act'. This Act by the Indian Parliament enforces certain responsibilities on every Organization with more than 10 employees in India.

Responsibilities of an Organization

Under the POSH Act, an Organization should:

Draft a Sexual Harassment Prevention Policy and cascade it to the employees.

POSH TRAINING FOR EMPLOYEES

Beyond compliance - building a culture of respect

While awareness is the foundation, creating a truly safe and respectful workplace requires continuous engagement and behavioural change.

POSH Pro goes beyond one-time training by reinforcing learning through real-life scenarios, manager sensitisation, refresher training and microlearning's . It helps organisations not just meet compliance requirements, but actively shape a culture where respect, accountability, and inclusion are practised every day.

POSH for Managers

A GREAT ORGANIZATIONAL CULTURE STARTS WITH THE MANAGERS & SUPERVISORS

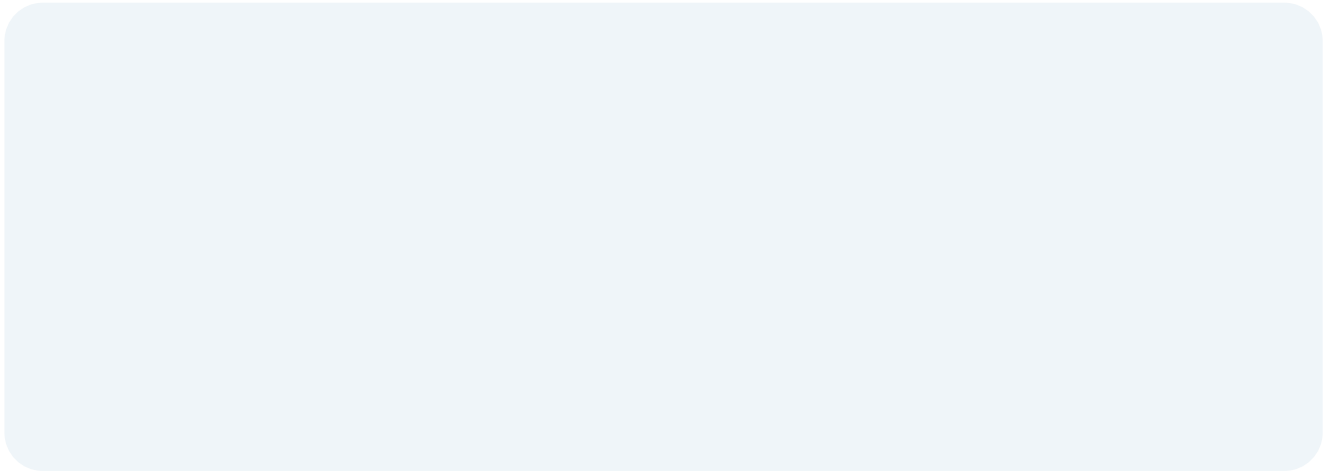

People managers play a key role in ensuring harassment-free work culture. They often get to address harassment issues at a very early stage. A proactive measure at that stage can reduce the effect of harassment and even eliminate it. Our POSH for Managers eLearning includes a 45-minute Foundation module and a 30-minute Manager eLearning.
